

RELEASE AND AUTHORIZATION TO DUPLICATE AND USE CERTAIN STUDENT CREATED WORK

RECITALS

As of the date hereof, _____ (the “Student”), is a student at Illinois Institute of Technology (“IIT”).

The Student is enrolled in a course entitled _____ (the “Course”), which is being taught by _____ (the “Instructor”).

In connection with the Course, the Student will produce certain required work, which may include, but is not limited to, articles, papers, models, methodologies, programs, systems, case studies and/or other comparable items (collectively, the “Work”).

TERMS

1. The Student hereby grants IIT and the Instructor a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free, world-wide license to use the Work that the Student has produced or will produce in connection with the Course for purposes of having the Work published and/or reproducing the Work for publication in any print or electronic media that officials of IIT and/or the Instructor deems appropriate (the “License”).

2. In consideration of the Student’s grant of the above License, IIT and the Instructor agree to provide reasonable and adequate credit to the Student in connection with any publication or reproduction of the Work.
